

Our Mission

Hands & Voices of New York is dedicated to supporting families with children who are deaf or hard of hearing, regardless of communication modes or methodology. We are a parent driven, non-profit organization providing families with the resources, networks, and information they need to improve communication access and educational outcomes for their children. Our efforts are focused on enabling deaf and hard of hearing children to reach their highest potentials.

We Are Family. We are Community. We are Strong.

Our Parent Driven Organization Offers

- Parent to parent education and support
- Social gatherings for families
- Collaboration with compassionate Professionals
- Parent perspectives and representation on statewide and national issues
- Advocacy training, outreach programs and other education information
- Non-biased support for all

Stay Strong - Stay Connected to Hands & Voices of New York

Who we are:

Hands & Voices of New York is a statewide chapter of the national Hands & Voices organization.

We are based in the Capital District (Albany) with members and interested parties in Buffalo, Rochester, New York City, Long Island, Utica, and Rome.

What Parents say about Hands and Voices:

“Parent support was essential for the success of my deaf children. It calmed my fears, concerns, and myths about deafness. Hands & Voices is here to put parents in touch with those that have experiences.”

“After doctors confirmed my newborn was deaf, the first person I was put in touch with was another parent of deaf children. The insight, understanding, and encouragement were invaluable.
